

Extra-Biblical Names in the Jesus Calling Series

© 2018 BNES

In the Jesus Calling series (for adults), Sarah Young's "Jesus" refers to himself with hundreds of different names, titles, and descriptors, using variations on common biblical names such as Christ, Creator, God, Helper, King, Lamb, Lord, Redeemer, Rock, Savior, and Shepherd. However, he completely avoids other familiar names and titles:

Advocate	Jesus of Nazareth	Son of David
High Priest	Mediator	Son of God
Jesus Christ	Servant	Son of Man

Instead, he opts for creative names that are not in the Bible but can be found in mythology, Buddhism, Hinduism, Islam, Theosophy, New Thought, New Age, psychic literature, and modern culture:

Big Brother	God of surprises	perpetual Lover
Boss	infinite intelligence	positive Focus
Catcher	Initiator	road map
Center	Lifeline	solution
co-participant	Lord of the universe	Source of delight
Compassionate One	Master of the universe	Sun
Controller of the universe	Master of time	traveling Companion
Director	mysterious Lover	travel guide
divine Artist	Owner	Treasure
eternal Lover	Partner	ultimate Desire
Focus	passionate Lover	ultimate goal
forever-Lover	perfect Betrothed	ultimate Reality
Goal	Perfect One	ultimate Pleasure

The highlighted names above are shown in the following pages in the context of extra-biblical sources and the Jesus Calling series. Quotation marks are generally omitted for readability.

Eternal Lover (Hinduism)

Knowing Him, feeling His presence, is an excitement far greater than any teenager’s excitement on her first date with the boy she loves. God can be depended upon but God cannot be predicted. . . . The Christian life cannot be accounted for by stereotypes. God is always the God of Surprises. . . . Come to Me with humility in your heart, bowing before My infinite intelligence. (JA Mar 02)

Many who practice Eastern traditions, particularly Hinduism and Buddhism, use chants as an instrumental part of their daily spiritual work . . . One of the more potent mantras and chants is Om Namah Shivaya . . . Although it lacks a literal meaning, it translates roughly to, "Infinite wisdom, infinite intelligence, I bow to the God within myself."<sup>17</sup>

This inspires you to worship Me—bowing before My infinite intelligence and limitless Power. (JL p. 206)

New Thought holds that Infinite Intelligence, or God, is everywhere . . . human selfhood is divine, divine thought is a force for good, sickness originates in the mind, and "right thinking" has a healing effect.<sup>18</sup>

You train your mind to trust My Sovereign ways with you—bowing before My mysterious, infinite intelligence. (JT p. 218)

Then, subordinate your finite mind to My infinite intelligence and sovereign ways. (JT p. 46)

Travel Guide (Psychic astral travel)

Among the most effective techniques for inducing out-of-body projection are those that incorporate the hypnagogic stage of sleep. . . . The technique often initiates awareness of a familiar spirit presence who becomes a “travel guide” throughout astral travel.<sup>34</sup>

(JA May 02)

Zen Buddhism teaches that all human beings have the Buddha-nature . . . but the Buddha-nature has been clouded by ignorance. To overcome this ignorance, Zen rejects the study of scriptures, religious rites . . . in favor of meditation leading to a sudden breakthrough of insight and awareness of ultimate reality.<sup>37</sup>

The more aware you are of My Presence, the safer you feel. This is not some sort of escape from reality; it is tuning in to ultimate reality.
(JC Jul 18; DJ p. 242)

Theosophy is philosophically monistic. It maintains the existence of a single ultimate reality, which in itself is absolute—impersonal, unknowable, and indescribable.<sup>38</sup>
